

COUNTY OF LAKE

Community News Update

LAKElife MAGAZINE CELEBRATES LAKE COUNTY

Magazine Spotlights the Many Reasons People Love Living in Lake County

LAKElife Magazine showcases the incredible destinations of Lake County, including its stunning natural beauty, charming towns, thriving wine and dining scenes and much more. Read More.

UNDERSTANDING THE FACTS ABOUT LAKE PILLSBURY

Protecting Lake Pillsbury's Wildlife, Communities, and Water Resources

The Lake County Board of Supervisors ensures residents understand the potential impacts of Scott Dam removal on wildlife, local communities and regional water supplies. Read More.

VALLEY FIRE: TEN YEARS LATER

Honoring Loss, Resilience, and Shared Recovery

Ten years after the Valley Fire, Lake County reflects on tragedy, resilience, and the partnerships that continue to shape wildfire preparedness and community recovery. Read More.

COUNTY COMMITTED TO KEEPING OUR CLEAR LAKE MUSSEL-FREE

Board of Supervisors Pushes the State for Urgent Clear Lake Protections

Lake County's successful Mussel Prevention program threatened by denial of state grant. Officials reinforcing local needs at the State level. Read More.

LAKE COUNTY PUBLIC WORKS UPDATES

*Board Approves Cobb Area Rehabilitation
Project Upgrade While Roadwork
Continues Countywide*

Lake County is improving roads this summer with chip seal work and a Cobb Area asphalt upgrade. Read More.

EXPLORING PUBLIC POWER GENERATION

*Lake County Governments Consider
Sonoma Clean Power (SCP), a Community-Owned Electricity Provider*

Lake County governments analyze the possibility of expanding SCP to the region as an alternative to PG&E for electricity service. Read More.

DISCOVER KONOCTI TRAILS IN LAKE COUNTY

*Konocti Trails
is the Gateway to Adventure
and Scenic Outdoor Fun*

Explore hiking, biking, paddling and more with Lake County's Konocti Trails website, the friendly guide to discovering local outdoor adventures. Read More.

